Peer Writing Consultant Application 2020-2021 School Year

Name:
Thank you for applying for the Wildcat Writing Den. We are looking for students who are passionate about reading and writing and can share that passion with others. We want to grow a supportive and authentic writing community at Novi High School, and we are looking for students who are good listeners, demonstrate kindness towards peers and are highly motivated.
This course has been approved as an ELA 12 credit at universities, including U of M, MSU, Purdue, MIT, Harvard, Stanford and Wayne State.
Please answer these questions below. We would also like you to submit one piece of writing (any genre, any length) that you wrote in the last year that you feel represents you best as a writer. Please attach your writing sample to this application to Mrs. Nizol and Mrs. Kidle in room 273. You can also submit your application by email at lauren.nizol@novik12.org and joanna.kidle@novik12.org.
• Write one paragraph about why you chose this sample of writing. How does it highlight a specific skill, ability, mindset or attitude that you have about the writing process?
• In one paragraph, what do you hope to gain from being a peer consultant?
• In one paragraph, what would you have to offer to your peers as a consultant?
• Finally, provide us with a name of a teacher (not ELA) who can speak to how you work with others.
Applications are due by Wednesday, February 19th (or sooner!) If selected, you must elect "Peer Writing Consultant" as your ELA 12 course option.
